Fynn Valley
Terrace

WEDDINGS

Nestled on the outskirts of Ipswich in the Suffolk countryside, this hidden gem provides a versatile space to create your own bespoke wedding. Set within the grounds of Fynn Valley golf course, the distinctive three-peaked building with its wood cladding and natural colours, blends beautifully into the picturesque landscape. Built in 2018, the natural internal décor includes touches of decadence, all wrapped within sliding panes to make the most of the panoramic views. The raised, open-framed ceilings give the reception area a wonderfully spacious feel, suitable for all kinds of weddings. The Oak and Acorn Rooms are licensed for ceremonies for up to 120 and 80 guests respectively, or 200 combining both rooms. Encompassed within the oak-framed building is a south-facing terrace and the flexible spaces provide a range of options to suit different needs with a maximum capacity of up to 300 loved ones for the evening reception.
